Cormac mac Cuilennáin stained glass window. Source: en.wikipedia.org

Cormac mac Cuilennáin, the king-bishop of Cashel, is remembered in the Dictionary of Irish Biography as a significant scholar and a figure of great religious and political influence. While no contemporary portrait exists, his legacy is often captured in stained glass and artistic representations, such as this window at St Patrick's Cathedral in Dublin, which reflects his stature as a saintly figure of wisdom and scholarship. Saint Brigid of Ireland
23rd – 31st January
Feast day 1st February
Novena prayer
O glorious Saint Brigid, patroness of Ireland and Mother of the Churches, protect the Church and preserve the true faith in every Irish heart, at home and abroad. Obtain for us the grace to walk faithfully in the path of Christian perfection during life, and so to secure a holy and happy death, with life everlasting, in your blessed company, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
Prayer to St. Brigid, Patroness of Ireland
- 1st February
O God, who gives us joy by the power of the intercession of blessed Brigid the Virgin, graciously grant that we may be assisted by her merits, through Christ our Lord. Amen.
Offer Masses, Adoration and daily Rosary through the intercession of St. Brigid over the 9 days of the novena. St. Brigid protect Ireland. Mary Queen of the Gael, pray for us.
